PLAINTIFFS' RESPONSE TO TRANSUNION'S
MOTION FOR PARTIAL DISMISSAL

Plaintiffs respectfully show the Court that TransUnion's Motion for Partial Dismissal [8] should be DENIED as MOOT. Defendant TransUnion sought to dismiss only Plaintiffs' prayer for injunctive relief. Inasmuch as the Plaintiffs are tendering an amended complaint which does not request the disputed relief,¹ upon the Court's grant of leave to amend, the sole issue posed by TransUnion's motion for partial dismissal will be MOOT.

¹ The amended complaint adds additional parties and narrows the requested relief. This is not a concession that TransUnion's arguments are meritorious as to injunctive relief, but reflects a decision to streamline the case.

Accordingly, for all the above stated reasons, defendant TransUnion's Motion for Partial Dismissal should be DENIED as MOOT.

Respectfully submitted,
